Originally, the currency system in the game was named ROBLOX Points but this system was replaced with the ROBUX system back in 2007. As time went on, ROBUX and Tix, an older currency system, were the only ways to purchase items in the game. Now, Tix has been filtered out to have ROBUX be the only method of money in the game. Using this item, players can purchase items from within the avatar shop or buy game-passes and user-generated content. Players can purchase more ROBUX using real-world money at any retailer but there are methods for players to earn them for free in the game. Here's how players can earn free ROBUX.

The majority of games found on the ROBLOX platform contain real people. So, if you choose a game where you meet other people or have to work alongside people (e.g. creating food for others), you'll likely be assuming a role with another real person.

When you visit the website, you will be asked your ROBLOX account details to claim a promo code. However, the system doesn't seem to verify your ROBLOX account, as it tends to proceed with the claim and activation process even with a non-existent ROBLOX username. This means that regardless of what you type in, the website actually manages to find and identify that username and encourages the user to complete the activation process for a ROBLOX account that doesn't even exist.
