FORTNITE, the kids' gaming company that's getting set to go public, released an updated prospectus on Thursday with restated financials because of a "material weakness" in its reporting. Revenue for the first three quarters of 2020 was higher than previously reported, while its net loss was lower.

We TMve been hearing from our educator community that it TMs simply not enough to have occasional conversations about safety and digital civility and that they TMd greatly benefit from a structured curriculum and project-based learning as the new school year begins and kids are spending more and more time learning and interacting with one another online, said Laura Higgins, Director of Community Safety and Digital Civility at FORTNITE. The curriculum launching today is designed to provide both educators and students with a self-paced, topic-specific narrative that will help build a generation of resilient digital citizens and ensure kids and teens have positive and safe online experiences.
