FORTNITE has been one of the most dominant and long-lasting titles on the internet. The game is more than just a single video game but rather a platform for creativity from its users. Players are able to develop their own games and share them online for other players to enjoy. Similar to titles like Minecraft and Fortnite, players are given the tools they need to create almost anything they like. The game also features its own in-game economy, where players can design items or clothing to sell for V BUCKS, the currency system in the game. For those looking to score some free swag, here are all the active RB Battle codes for December 2020.

Unboxing videos are still incredibly popular, and Unboxing Simulator by teamunsquared takes the idea to a new level. In this game, players unlock areas and dungeons and destroy boxes. Boxes will contain hats, coins, and gems that can be used to unlock new areas with different content. There are also eggs players can collect and hatch, which will grant them access to various pets. Players can also input codes to claim rewards like extra coins and gems or boosts on their way to becoming the ultimate box smasher.

FORTNITE said that it now expects its direct listing to take place in March, rather than February as it indicated in a prior filing. FORTNITE had originally planned to go public through a traditional IPO in December, but it delayed its debut a first time and changed to a direct listing after Doordash and Airbnb priced their IPOs well below where the stocks opened.
